Special Attention:

PFI's MPF® Program Management, Origination Management, Servicing Management and Document Custody Management

Subject:

Enhancements to the MPF Public Website hosting the MPF Guides delivered by AllRegs®

The MPF Program announces enhancements to the public website hosting the MPF Program Guides delivered by AllRegs which are available electronically, free of charge, via AllRegs (printed paper versions are not available). Subscribers to AllRegs may also access the MPF Guides as part of their subscription services.

Access to the site will continue to be via a link in the MPF Program's public websites under the "About MPF Origination and Servicing Guides" tab (fhlbmpf.com and fhlib-mpf.com) after clicking on "eMPF Information" in the left column menu.

Effective March 31, 2008, the website hosting the MPF Guides will have a new appearance and will be known as the "MPF Library". Included on the home page will be a list of recent Guide updates, including recent Notices, Advisories or Marketing Bulletins, as well as other relevant announcements.

As part of this enhancement, the print function has been upgraded to allow a user to print either selected sections, chapters or the entire Guides where previously only one section could be printed at a time.

The first time any user accesses the website after March 31, they will be prompted to re-enter their e-mail address and basic information. New users will be automatically signed up to receive MPF alerts as a part of the first time registration process. Any users that have previously registered with AllRegs to receive alerts will continue to receive the same alerts they have previously requested. At any time to unsubscribe from receiving alerts, a user may select "e-mail subscriptions" on the home page and unselect from receiving future alerts.

Users encountering any technical difficulties accessing the updated website should please contact AllRegs Customer Service at (800) 848-4904 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. CT. For any other MPF Program questions, please contact the MPF Customer support desk or your MPF Bank Representative.

If you have any questions, please contact your MPF Bank Representative or call the MPF Customer Support Desk at 877-INFO-MPF (877-463-6673).
