Submitting Form SG341

Servicers must submit the Form SG341 as follows:

- to notify the MPF Provider that a Servicing Request has been processed in accordance with Guide requirements, or
- to request approval for an exception, when permitted in the Guides, if the Servicer determines the request does not meet the eligibility requirements, but the Servicer determines extenuating circumstances exist the Servicer must obtain approval prior to processing the request.

For additional information, refer to Chapter 5. Assumptions and Chapter 6. Amendment of Security Instruments of the applicable MPF Servicing Guide.

Effective Date

Servicers are encouraged to begin utilizing the Form SG341 immediately but must do so for all requests received on or after February 3, 2026.

Training

Servicers are encouraged to attend the upcoming MPF Webinar – Submitting Servicing Requests for Assumptions, Releases of Liability, and Partial Releases in eMAQCSplus.
